

Back pain?

Not sure who to call?

Just dial

1-866-982-3131.

There are many causes of back pain – and just as many treatments for it. But how do you know which treatment you need – or even who to call?

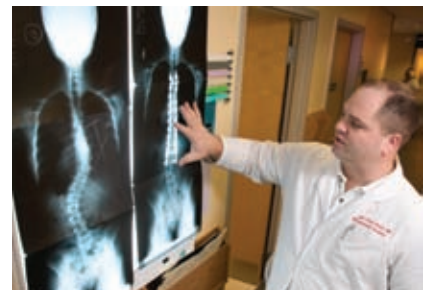

That's easy. Just call the toll-free number at the Cabell Huntington Hospital Back and Spine Center and our highly-trained and experienced back and spine experts will make sure you're referred to just the right specialist for exactly the right treatment you need.

We'll see that you're examined as quickly as possible by the most appropriate members of our comprehensive, multi-disciplinary team. We'll coordinate a personalized care and treatment plan for you. And we'll follow you through to the most successful outcome possible.

Whether you need advanced spine surgery, neurological care, pain management, physical therapy or any of a wide range of other proven back and spine therapies, we have the exact expert you need right here on our campus. And reaching that expert is as easy as dialing 1-866-982-3131.
