

The U.S. Naval Reserve training facility is located on Jackson Avenue between West 8th and 9th streets. It is approximately 10,000 square feet and has been vacant for two years. It is still owned by the Navy. The Healing Place would like to use the building for a men's treatment facility.

Healing Place looking at two properties for treatment centers

The Tri-City Floors & Ceiling building is located at 2425 9th Ave. It used to be Lincoln Elementary School. Tri-City owns the building and has it up for sale. The Healing Place would like to use it for a women's treatment facility.