

Announcement of proposed medical facility in Ironton

Lawrence County Health Care Futures, LLC announced Wednesday afternoon that a site had been chosen near Ohio University Southern Campus in Ironton for a new Family Medical Center with extended urgent care hours. The site includes about 20 acres that would allow for several phases of development which, if proven economically feasible, could lead to a full service medical complex. The Ironton area has been without a hospital for more than five years.

